

Shinrin-yoku game rules

*You take turns to pull a card from the pile.
Whoever draws cards decide where the game
takes place in the forest, park or garden.*

You note the participants names and points on the block.

On each card it is told how you get points.

When you have been all the cards through, you count the points together and see who has won.

Enjoy